present in court but took no active and Mrs. Quillici, part in the proceedings.

Attorney Frame, representing Tranner, informed Judge Ducker that he had nothing to say at this time. It is understood that Tram ner's case will be laid before the Board of Pardons and if that body refuses to show elemency an effort will be made to carry the case to the United States Supreme court.

It is the second time the sentence of death has been pronounced on warships appeared. The vessel was Transner. He was convicted in the District court here on February 5, 1913, Judge Ducker presiding. The prosecution was conducted by Wiltiam Woodburn, who was at that A Busy Day In time district attorney of Washoe county, and District Attorney Cala han of Humboldt county.

Tranner was convicted of the murder of Mrs. Quillici. A motion for a new trial was denied and Tramner was sentenced to death. He chose preme court and the order denying $409. the new trial aws affirmed on December 31, 1915. Early in August the Supreme court denied a motion for court to enter the order directing the answer, warden of the prison to carry the sentence of death into execution.

The shooting of Tramner will be the first legal execution to take place at the prison since Andrije Mircovich was shot for the murder of Antone for October 21st. Gregovich at Tonopah, Mircovich was executed in 1913,
